Ownership of the Data
Each member of the research team listed above has equal ownership of the data.

Use of the Data
The research team members listed above agree to use the data and allow the use of the data by third parties only for non-commercial, research purposes.

Each research team member listed above may publish manuscripts and posters and give presentations based on their own analysis of the data. They may prepare such analyses independently or in collaboration with other individuals who are not part of the research team listed above. However, each research team member agrees that none of them will make such publications or presentations based on their own analyses of the data until after January 1, 2020.
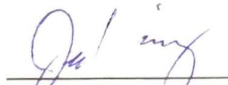

Co-authorship in Manuscript(s)
If required, the research team members listed above agree to co-author a manuscript or prepare a poster presentation based on the data to fulfill the obligations of the SOC 5800 Survey Design and Sampling course (Section 12985, Fall 2019 semester) at Saint Louis University. The research team members agree that they will determine the first author and second author for the manuscript and poster through secret ballot based on each person's assessment of each team member's contribution to the manuscript or poster. They will each vote on the two individuals they believe deserve credit as first or second author. The person that receives the most votes will be listed as first author. The person that receives the second most votes will be listed as second author. If there is a tie for the most votes, the person whose last name comes first in alphabetical order will be listed a first author and the other top vote getter will be listed as second author. The remaining team members will be listed in alphabetical order by last name.

Entire Agreement
This agreement represents the entire understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings of the parties, whether written or oral. This agreement is effective October 15, 2019 and may not be modified except in writing and signed by each party.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties indenting to be legally bound, have executed this agreement by their signatures below.
